(target was “net debt \leq 3 x EBITDA”)
- Broadly stable net debt year-on-year of €2.2bn at December 31, 2015

2015 key take-aways

■ In a challenging year for our industry...

- ▶ Low construction levels in many geographies,
- ▶ Copper prices down 20% YoY (on average in USD terms),
- ▶ Oil & Gas activity strongly impacted by the 36% YoY drop in oil prices,
- ▶ Slowdown in industrial end-markets in North America,
- ▶ Economic deceleration in China,...

...our sales posted a limited drop of 2.1% on a constant and same-day basis

- We established a streamlined regional structure, based on Europe, North America and Asia-Pacific
- We completed the transformation of our operations in the USA and implemented a cost reduction plan
- We launched a portfolio review to reallocate our resources to the most valuable assets and made significant headway on the disposal program
- We made a few targeted accretive acquisitions, in line with our strategy
- We maintained a sound financial structure, thanks to our cash-generating model, and reduced our financing costs through recent refinancing operations

Europe (54% of sales): Sequential improvement in sales, gross margin and profitability in Q4

- ▶ France (32% of the region's sales) continued to proved very resilient and improved sequentially with sales down 1.8% (after -3.6% in Q3)
 - ▶ Reflecting continuing low construction levels as well as negative impact from copper prices
- ▶ United Kingdom (14% of the region's sales) returned to positive territory with 3.1% growth
 - ▶ Growth was driven by higher PV sales (representing 2 percentage points out of the 3.1%) and positive momentum in other segments
- ▶ Scandinavia (13% of the region's sales) remained solid with 2.7% growth
 - ▶ Sweden up 6.0% and Norway up 1.7% in Q4; Finland posted a 4.2% drop, impacted by a tough macro-economic environment
- ▶ Germany (11% of the region's sales) posted a 4.7% drop in sales
 - ▶ Half of the drop was attributable to lower copper prices
- ▶ Other European countries (30% of the region's sales) posted a compound drop of 1.5%
 - ▶ Switzerland and Belgium down 5.2% and 0.9% respectively, while Austria and Spain were up 5.8% and 4.1% respectively

In line with its resource reallocation program, Rexel announced the disposal of non-strategic assets in Europe

- On February 12, 2015, Rexel presented its disposal program aimed at reallocating its resources to its most profitable assets
 - ▶ Expected impacts of the total program (based on FY2014 accounts)
 - A reduction of c. 5% in the Group's consolidated sales
 - A positive contribution of c. 20bps to the Group's adj. EBITA margin
 - A moderate increase in the Group's FCF before interest and tax
 - ▶ Expected completion by the end of 2016
- On April 30, 2015, Rexel announced the disposal of its Latin American operations representing c. €260m of consolidated sales, i.e. around 40% of the total program
- On January 20, 2016, Rexel announced the disposal of three non-strategic assets in Europe: Poland, Slovakia and Baltics
 - ▶ Combined contribution to the Group's 2015 consolidated sales: €153m
 - ▶ Combined contribution to the Group's 2015 consolidated adj. EBITA: €0.0m
- To date, Rexel has already completed around 60% of the total resource reallocation program announced on February 12, 2015

On track to achieve the resource reallocation program

North America (36% of sales): Sequential improvement in sales and stable gross margin year-on-year in Q4

■ Q4 sales of €1,274.6m, up 4.4% on a reported basis

- ▶ Positive currency effect of €127.6m (i.e. 10.4% of last year's sales), mainly due to the appreciation of the USD vs. the euro

■ On a constant and same-day basis, Q4 sales were down 6.5%, mainly impacted by a strong deterioration of 36% in O&G sales (c. 10% of the region's sales) and lower cable sales (USD copper prices dropped by 26%)

Const. & same-day	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4
Incl. copper effect,	-0.2%	-5.9%	-7.2%	-6.5%

▶ USA (79% of the region's sales) down 5.9%, of which:

- 3.6 percentage points attributable to the 37% drop in O&G
- 1.9 percentage points attributable to lower cable sales
- 1.3 percentage points attributable to branch network optimization

▶ Canada (21% of the region's sales) down 8.8%, of which:

- 3.6 percentage points attributable to the 34% drop in O&G
- 2.1 percentage points attributable to strong drop in PV sales (down 90% in the quarter)
- 1.7 percentage points attributable to the drop in sales to the Mining industry (down 29% in the quarter)

Acquisition of Brohl & Appell to strengthen Rexel's position in the automation and MRO segments in the US

Business description

- Specialist in Automation and MRO products
- Exclusive distributor of Rockwell
- Mostly Industrial customers (85%)
- Founded in 1889 and based in Ohio
- 7 branches
- About 60 FTEs

Strategic Rationale

- In line with strategy to strengthen footprint in the US, reinforce partnership with Rockwell and develop MRO operations
- In 2015, automation represented 15% of Rexel's sales in the US

Financials

- 2015 sales: €24m (USD 26m)
- Profitability above Group average

Brohl & Appell footprint

Asia-Pacific (10% of sales): Slight sequential improvement in sales and gross margin in Q4; profitability under pressure

■ Q4 sales of €342.3m, up 10.8% on a reported basis

- ▶ Positive currency effect of €8.4m (i.e. 2.7% of last year's sales)
- ▶ Positive scope effect of €26.1m (i.e. 8.4% of last year's sales)

■ On a constant and same-day basis, Q4 sales were down 0.1%

▶ Asia (55% of the region's sales) down 1.0%

- China (c. 65% of Asia) posted a 5.4% drop in sales, after -2.3% in Q3, reflecting tougher macro-economic conditions
- South-East Asia (c. 25% of Asia) posted a 2.7% drop in sales; excluding the 46% drop in sales to the O&G industry that represented half of last year's sales, constant and same-day growth was 44.4%
- Rest of Asia (c. 10% of Asia) up 73.4%, driven by sales development in the Middle-East (from €2.2m in Q4 2014 to €7.0m in Q4 2015)

▶ Pacific (45% of the region's sales) up 1.0%

- Australia (c. 80% of Pacific) posted a 1.0% drop in sales, a sequential improvement vs. -3.7% in Q3; the drop reflected lower sales in Western Australia and in Queensland, largely impacted by China's economic slowdown and the drop in commodity prices
- New-Zealand (c. 20% of Pacific) continued to improve sequentially: +10.4% (after -6.5% in Q1, -4.0% in Q2 and +3.9% in Q3)

Dividend consistent with cash allocation policy

2016 outlook

■ In an environment that is expected to remain difficult throughout most of the year and taking into account challenging comparables in Q1, Rexel aims at delivering in 2016:

- ▶ Organic sales growth on a constant and same-day basis of between -3% and +1%
 - This sales guidance includes a c. 1.1 percentage point negative impact from copper prices (based on the assumption of average copper price of USD4,500/t in 2016, i.e. a c. 20% decline vs. 2015)
 - Excluding this assumed negative impact of c. 1.1 percentage points from copper prices, this corresponds to a sales guidance of between -1.9% and +2.1%
- ▶ Adjusted EBITA¹ margin of between 4.1% and 4.5%

■ In addition, Rexel confirms its cash allocation policy of:

- ▶ Paying out an attractive dividend of at least 40% of recurring net income
- ▶ Continuing its targeted accretive acquisition strategy
- ▶ While maintaining a sound financial structure, with net debt $\leq 3 \times$ EBITDA at Dec. 31

■ ...thanks to solid free cash-flow generation of:

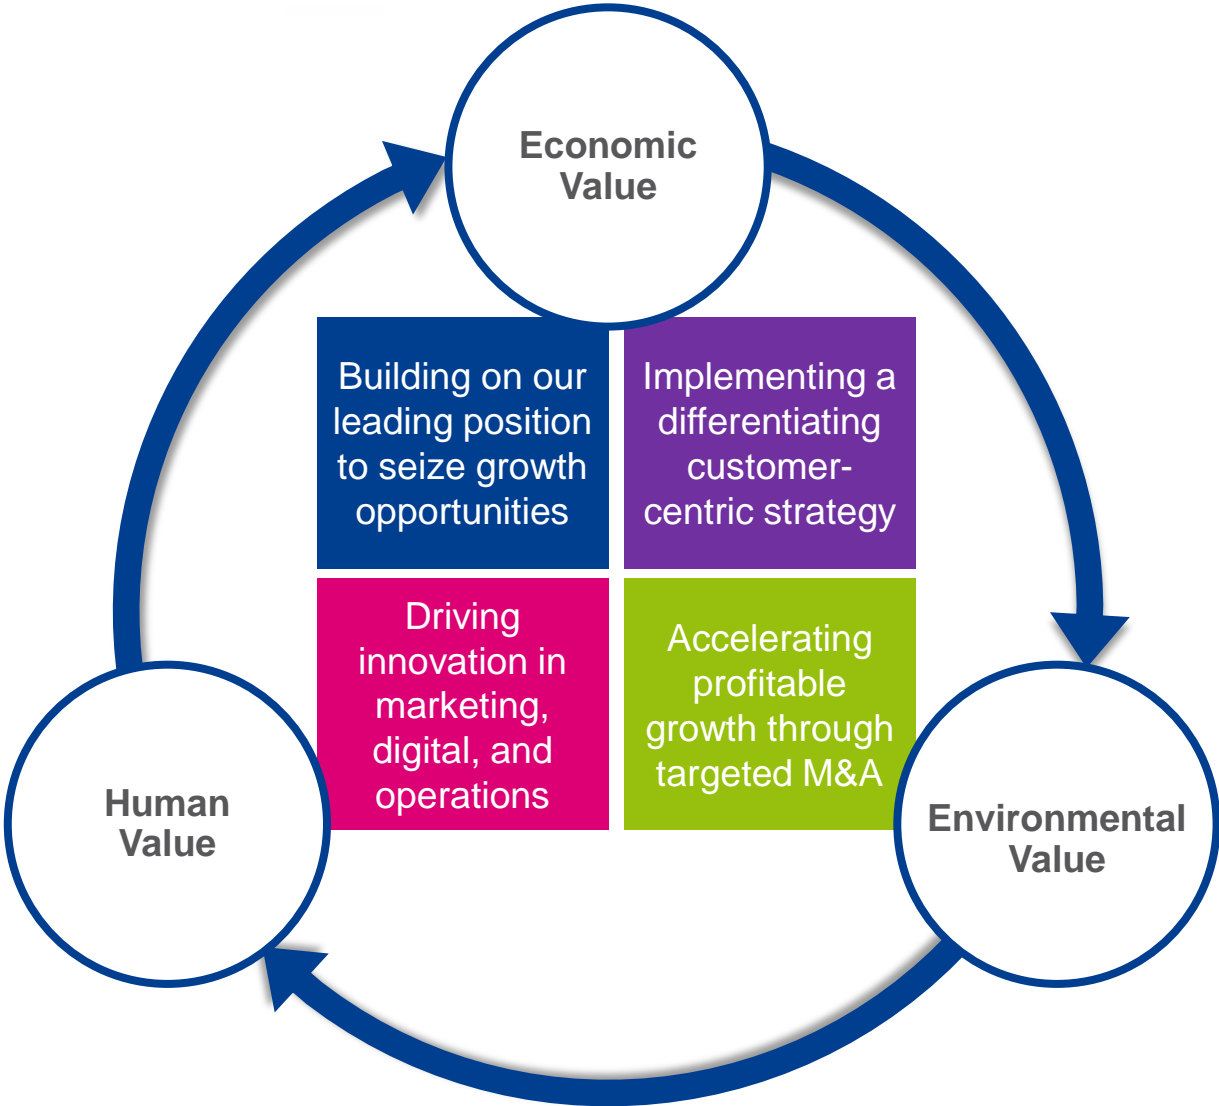

- ▶ Between 70% and 80% of EBITDA, before interest and tax
- ▶ Between 35% and 45% of EBITDA, after interest and tax

Innovation in Marketing : Dynamic pricing powered by behavioral customer segmentation

From:
“One-size fits all”

- Price scattering
- No segmentation
- No ability to Up-sell, Cross-Sell

To:
“Customer- & transaction-specific pricing”

24 customer segments based on historical purchase and shopping carts

4 product sensitivity levels defined at “function” level based on frequency of purchase and share of wallet

3 customer involvement levels: built on customer potential, size and behavior

- Value-based pricing: Maximize ‘willingness to pay’
- Multi-axis customer segmentation
- Ability to Up-sell, Cross-Sell

Increased value per transaction

REXEL

a world of energy

We have a successful M&A track record

	2012-2015	2016 to date
Europe	10 acquisitions ~280 M€ Sales	2 acquisitions ~130 M€ Sales
North America	3 acquisitions ~520 M€ Sales	1 acquisition ~25 M€ Sales
Asia Pacific	8 acquisitions ~220 M€ Sales

€1.2b acquired sales since 2012 through 24 acquisitions

REXEL

a world of energy

Our M&A strategy has two pillars

Strengthen position / leverage scale in core markets

- Increase market share and reinforce position in core geographies
- Leverage scale and capitalize on synergies

Expand through new growth vectors/adjacencies

- Position Rexel for the future by investing in new growth areas/capabilities
- Enter/grow attractive adjacent markets with strong accretive value potential

We have strict M&A criteria in place

Quantitative criteria

- Above average market growth profile and potential
- IRR close or above 10%
- EPS accretion in less than 24 months

Qualitative criteria

- Strategic fit and alignment
- Accretive in terms of capabilities and talent
- Adequate country risk profile

Key take-aways

- Track record of accelerated growth through M&A: €1.2bn acquired sales since 2012
- Our M&A strategy has two pillars: strengthen position in core markets and pursue new growth vectors / adjacencies
- Rexel has a strong M&A pipeline to boost future growth

4 ■ 2020 FINANCIAL AMBITIONS

REXEL

a world of energy

Rexel is targeting organic sales outperforming the market

■ In recent years, our environment has become more challenging

- ▶ Less price inflation on products excl. cables (c. 85% of Rexel's sales) since 2013

- ▶ Lower copper prices impacting cables sales (c. 15% of Rexel's sales) since 2011

- ▶ Uncertain/Volatile macro-economic environment in many geographies, including low level of construction in many countries

- Even if 2016 is expected to remain a challenging year, our ambition is to outperform the market, with annual organic sales growth of between 1% and 2%, on average over the five-year period, on a constant and same-day basis

- This ambition is conditional upon an economic recovery materializing over the five-year period

Above-market organic sales growth

a world of energy

Rexel is targeting EBITA growth at twice the rate of sales growth

■ Taking into account the...

- ▶ Continued efforts to protect gross margin
- ▶ Relentless focus on cost productivity
- ▶ Impact of restructuring programs
- ▶ Return on investment from business transformation initiatives
- ▶ Turnaround in profitability in some countries

Our adjusted EBITA¹ should grow, on average over the five-year period, by at least twice the pace of organic sales

Rexel's business model will remain highly cash-generating

■ Taking into account the...

- ▶ Low capital intensity of our business model
- ▶ Continued working capital optimization and asset productivity

We aim at continuing to generate strong free cash flow, with conversion rates of EBITDA into free cash flow, on average over the five-year period, of:

- Between 70% and 80%, before interest and tax
- Between 35% and 45%, after interest and tax

Targeted accretive M&A will complement organic growth

- Rexel aims to accelerate its M&A strategy through targeted accretive acquisitions
- Over the 2016-2020 period, Rexel has the ambition and the financial capacity to invest around €1.5bn in targeted accretive acquisitions, i.e. around €300m on average per year:
 - ▶ Consistent with our priorities of expanding our business towards adjacencies and new capabilities as well as strengthening market position where relevant
 - ▶ In line with our strict M&A criteria

M&A could generate cumulated additional sales of over €2bn over the 2016-2020 period

Rexel 2020 : Driving long-term value creation

Rexel 2020: Balancing financial strength, sustained M&A, and an attractive dividend policy

2020 financial ambitions

- At its Capital Market Day to be held today in Paris, Rexel will present its long-term strategy and financial ambitions
- Even assuming a challenging environment throughout most of 2016 and taking into account the cautious guidance for 2016, Rexel aims at achieving on average over the next five years the following financial targets:
 - ◆ Organic sales outperforming the market, with annual growth of between 1% and 2% on a constant and same-day basis
 - ◆ Annual adjusted EBITA¹ growth of at least twice the pace of organic sales growth
 - ◆ Conversion rates of EBITDA into free cash flow of:
 - Between 70% and 80%, before interest and tax
 - Between 35% and 45%, after interest and tax
- These financial ambitions are conditional upon an economic recovery materializing over the five-year period
- On top of organic growth, Rexel will continue its targeted accretive acquisition strategy, in line with its cash allocation policy

Appendix 5: Calendar, scope and change effects on sales

2014 sales from continuing operations should take into account the following estimated impacts to be comparable to 2015:

	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4	FY
Calendar effect	-0.6%	+0.2%	+0.4%	+0.7%	+0.2%

Change effect	8.1%	9.6%	6.4%	4.8%	7.1%

Based on the assumption of the following average exchange rates:

- 1€ = 1.10USD
- 1€ = 1.45CAD
- 1€ = 1.55AUD
- 1€ = 0.70GBP

and based on acquisitions to date, 2015 sales from continuing operations should take into account the following estimated impacts to be comparable to 2016:

Disclaimer

The Group is exposed to fluctuations in copper prices in connection with its distribution of cable products. Cables accounted for approximately 14% of the Group's sales, and copper accounts for approximately 60% of the composition of cables. This exposure is indirect since cable prices also reflect copper suppliers' commercial policies and the competitive environment in the Group's markets. Changes in copper prices have an estimated so-called "recurring" effect and an estimated so called "non-recurring" effect on the Group's performance, assessed as part of the monthly internal reporting process of the Rexel Group:

- the recurring effect related to the change in copper-based cable prices corresponds to the change in value of the copper part included in the sales price of cables from one period to another. This effect mainly relates to the Group's sales;*
- the non-recurring effect related to the change in copper-based cables prices corresponds to the effect of copper price variations on the sales price of cables between the time they are purchased and the time they are sold, until all such inventory has been sold (direct effect on gross profit). Practically, the non-recurring effect on gross profit is determined by comparing the historical purchase price for copper-based cable and the supplier price effective at the date of the sale of the cables by the Rexel Group. Additionally, the non-recurring effect on EBITA corresponds to the non-recurring effect on gross profit, which may be offset, when appropriate, by the non-recurring portion of changes in the distribution and administrative expenses.*

The impact of these two effects is assessed for as much of the Group's total cable sales as possible, over each period. Group procedures require that entities that do not have the information systems capable of such exhaustive calculations to estimate these effects based on a sample representing at least 70% of the sales in the period. The results are then extrapolated to all cables sold during the period for that entity. Considering the sales covered, the Rexel Group considers such estimates of the impact of the two effects to be reasonable.
