1. Transfer and assignment of shares

Shares may be traded without restrictions, unless otherwise stipulated by law or the regulations. They are transferred from and to shareholder's account, within the conditions and according to the procedures stipulated by law.

2. Crossing of threshold

In addition to the legal obligation to inform the Company of the crossing of thresholds provided by law, any individual or legal entity who, acting alone or in concert, comes to own, directly or indirectly within the meaning of the law (and in particular article L.233-9 of the French commercial code) a number of shares representing a portion of the share capital or voting rights equal to or exceeding 2.5%, must inform the Company of the total number of shares and voting rights it holds, within 5 trading days following the crossing of this threshold, regardless of the date of the registration in account, by registered mail to the registered office of the Company or any other equivalent means for the holders or bearers of shares residing outside of France, specifying the total number of shares it owns which give access in the future to the share capital and voting rights attached thereto. This statement of crossing of threshold also indicates whether the shares or voting rights pertaining thereto are owned or not on behalf of or in concert with other individuals or legal entities and also specifies the date on which the threshold. It is renewed for the holding of each additional 2.5% fraction of the capital or voting rights, without limitation, including beyond 5%.

Failure to make such declaration duly, within the conditions stipulated above, will result in the shares exceeding the fraction which should have been declared being deprived of voting rights on the conditions stipulated by law, if one or several shareholders owning a fraction of the Company's capital or voting rights amounting to at least 2.5% make a request to this purpose which is recorded in the minutes of the shareholders meeting.

Any shareholder whose shareholding in the company in capital and/or voting rights falls below one of the aforementioned thresholds is also required to inform the company accordingly within the same deadline and according to the same forms, regardless of the reason thereof.

For calculating the aforementioned thresholds, account must be taken of the denominator of the total number of shares making-up the capital to which the voting rights are attached, including those shares deprived of voting rights, as published by the Company in accordance with law (the Company must specify in its publications the total number of shares with voting rights and the number of shares which have been deprived of voting rights).

2. The shareholders are liable for the company's liabilities only up to the amount of their contributions in the Company.

The rights and obligations remain attached to the share, regardless of ownership.

Ownership of a share automatically implies acceptance of the By-Laws and decisions of the shareholders' meetings.

3. Whenever it is necessary to own several shares to exercise any right whatsoever, in the event of the exchange, grouping together or allotment of shares, or as a consequence of the increase or reduction of the capital, a merger or other corporate transaction, the owners of isolated shares, or a number of shares which falls short of the required number, can exercise these rights only on the condition that they personally undertake to group together and, as the case may be, purchase or sell the necessary shares.

ARTICLE 14 - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The Board of Directors is made up of at least 5 members and no more than 15 members, subject to the exception stipulated by law in the event of mergers.

During the Company's term, the directors are appointed or renewed to office by the Ordinary Shareholders Meeting.

2. They are appointed for a maximum term of four years.

However, the first directors appointed by the shareholders' meeting of May 22, 2014 and who were previously members of the Supervisory Board of the Company on the date of the shareholders' meeting of May 22, 2014 have been appointed for a period of time equal to the remainder of their term of office as members of the Supervisory Board of the Company.

The term of office of a director expires at the end of the ordinary shareholders' meeting convened to approve the financial statements for the previous financial year and held during the year in which the term of office of such director expires.

The Board of Directors shall be renewed in quarters, rounded to the higher whole number every year so that it is fully renewed every four years. The order of early termination of the terms of office shall be determined by the unanimous decision of the Directors present or represented or, if unanimity is unable to be reached, by drawing lots. The term of office of the persons so designated will expire on the date determined by the unanimous decision of the Board of Directors or determined by the Chairman of the Board of Directors before the draw. The renewal of directors shall then be carried out in the order of length of service.

Directors are always eligible for reelection.

They may be dismissed at any time by the ordinary shareholders' meeting.

No individual exceeding the age of 70 may be appointed as director if such appointment raises the number of directors who are over this age to more than one-third.

3. Where, at the close of a financial year, the portion of share capital held by the employees of the Company, and of its related companies within the meaning of article L. 225-1890 of the French Commercial Code, pursuant to the provisions of article L. 225-102 of said Code, is in excess of 3%, a director representing the employee shareholders shall be appointed by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the terms set forth in the regulations in force and in the By-Laws, to the extent the Board of Directors does not already include a director who is an elected employee shareholder or employee.

The candidates for appointment to the office of employee-shareholder director are appointed in accordance with the following:

- a) Where the voting right attached to the shares held by the employees or investment funds of which they are a member is exercised by the members of the supervisory board of said investment funds, the candidates are appointed by and from among the members of said supervisory board members; and

- b) Where the voting right attached to the shares held by the employees (or by the investment funds of which they are a member) is directly exercised by said employees, the candidates are appointed during the consultation provided under article L. 225-106 of the French Commercial Code, either by the employee shareholders' meeting held specifically for said purpose, or by written consultation. To be eligible, the candidates must be presented by a group of shareholders representing at least 5 % of the shares held by the employees exercising their voting right in an individual capacity.

4. The directors may be individuals or legal entities. If they are legal entities, at the time of their appointment, they must appoint a permanent representative who is subject to the same conditions and obligations and who incurs the same liabilities as if he or she were a director in his or her own name, without prejudice to the joint and several liability of the legal entity that he or she represents. This position of permanent representative is granted to him or her for the duration of the term of office of the legal entity he or she represents. It must be renewed each time the term of office of this legal entity is renewed.

If the legal entity dismisses its representative, it is required to immediately notify the Company of this dismissal, by registered mail, along as well as unavailability of the identity of its new permanent representative. The same is true in the event of the death, resignation or extended impediment of the permanent representative.

5. If one or several seats on the Board of Directors become vacant between two shareholders' meetings subsequent to the death or resignation of a member, the Board of Directors may make one or several provisional appointments.

Appointments of directors made by the Board of Directors are subject to the approval of the upcoming Ordinary Shareholders Meeting.

Failing approval, the decisions made and acts performed previously remain, nonetheless valid.

If the number of directors falls below three, the remaining directors must immediately convene an Ordinary Shareholders Meeting for the purpose of completing the Board of Directors.

The director appointed to replace another member remains in office only for the time remaining on his or her predecessor's term.

6. A person cannot be appointed as a director if he or she does not comply with the rules governing the plurality of duties, incompatibility, forfeiture or prohibition stipulated by the law.

The number of directors linked to the Company by an employment agreement shall not exceed one third of the directors in office.

7. Directors representing the employees

- 7.1 In accordance with articles L.225-27-1 and L.22-10-7 of the French Commercial Code, the Board of Directors includes one or two directors representing the employees of the Group, to be appointed as follows.

When the number of directors exceeds eight, and subject to this criterion still being satisfied upon the date of his/her appointment, a second director representing the employees shall be appointed by the European Works Council. This appointment shall take place within a term of six months as from the crossing of the threshold of eight directors.

In case of vacancy, for any reason whatsoever, of the office of a director representing the employees, the vacant office shall be filled in, accordance with the provisions of Article L.225- 34 of the French Commercial Code.

- 7.2 The term of office of the employee directors shall be of four years.

The functions of the director designated in accordance with articles L.225-27-1 and L.22-10-7 of the French Commercial Code end on completion of the annual general meeting of shareholders having ruled on the financial statements for the past financial year and held in the year during which the term expires.

Nevertheless, their term of office shall cease ipso jure when these employee representatives no longer meet the eligibility criteria provided for in Article L.225-28 of the French Commercial Code, or in case of termination of their employment agreement in accordance with Article L.225-32 of such code.

The decrease to eight or less than eight of the number of directors appointed by the General Shareholders' Meeting does not affect the term of office of all of the employee representatives within the Board of Directors, which shall expire upon the end of its normal term.

- 7.3. The provisions of Article 15 of these by-laws do not apply to directors representing the employees which are not compelled to hold a minimum number of shares of the Company.
- 7.4. In the event that the obligation of appointment of one or several directors representing the employees pursuant to articles L.225-27-1 and L.22-10-7 of the French Commercial Code becomes void, the office of the Director(s) representing the employees within the Board of Directors shall expire upon its normal end.

ARTICLE 25 - SHAREHOLDERS MEETINGS

Collective decisions of the shareholders are voted in shareholders meetings, which are referred to as ordinary, extraordinary or special, depending on the nature of the decisions they are called to resolve upon.

ARTICLE 28 - ACCESS TO SHAREHOLDERS MEETINGS

1. The right to attend shareholders meetings is subject to the registration or the recording of the shares under the conditions and in the time limits provided for by applicable regulation.
2. A shareholder may be represented by any other shareholder, by his or her spouse or by the person with whom he or she has entered into a civil solidarity pact (pacte civil de solidarité). In addition, a shareholder may be represented by any other individual or entity of its choice:
 - (i) when the shares of the Company are listed on a regulated market;
 - (ii) when the shares of the Company are listed on a multilateral trading facility that submits itself to legislative or regulatory provisions which aims at protecting investors against insider trading, market manipulation and diffusion of false information under the conditions set forth in the general rules of the Autorité des marchés financiers, mentioned on a list drawn up by the Autorité des marchés financiers under conditions set forth in its general rules.

The proxy and, as the case may be, its withdrawal must be in writing and provided to the Company, under the conditions set forth by the Law.

This form may appear, as the case may be, on the same document as the proxy form; in this case, the sole document must comprise the references and information stipulated by regulatory provisions. The form must be received by the Company at least three (3) days prior to the date of the meeting, failing which, no account will be taken thereof. An electronic signature can take the form of a process meeting the conditions

This attendance register, duly initialed by the shareholders in presence and the proxies, to which the proxy forms granted to each representative are appended, and as the case may be the mail voting forms, is certified accurate by the officers of the meeting.

2. Shareholders' meetings are chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, in his or her absence, by the Deputy Chairman of the Board of Directors or by a member of the Board of Directors specially appointed for this purpose.

If the meeting is convened by the statutory auditors, a court representative or the liquidators, the meeting is chaired by one of them.

In any case, failing the authorized person or the person appointed to chair the meeting, the meeting elects its Chairman.

The duties of tellers are performed by the two shareholders in presence and acquiescing who represent, either themselves or as representatives, the greatest number of shares.

The officers, once appointed, appoint a secretary who need not be a shareholder.

The officers' duty is to verify, certify and sign the register of attendance, to ensure the proper conduct of the proceedings, to settle incidents occurring during the meeting, to check the votes issued and to monitor the regularity thereof, and to supervise the drafting of the minutes and sign them.

3. Minutes are drafted and copies or extracts of the proceedings are issued and certified in accordance with law.

ARTICLE 30 - QUORUM – VOTE – NUMBER OF VOTES

1. In Ordinary and Extraordinary Shareholders Meetings, the quorum is calculated on the basis of all the shares making-up the share capital, after deducting the shares deprived of voting rights pursuant to the provisions of law.

In the case of a vote by mail, account is taken for calculating the quorum only of the forms received by the Company prior to the convening of the meeting, within the conditions and the deadlines stipulated by law.

2. In Ordinary and Extraordinary Shareholders Meetings, the shareholder has as many votes as he or she owns or represents shares, without limitation. In accordance with the ability provided for under article L.22-10-46 of the French Commercial Code, fully paid-up shares which can be proved to have been registered in the name of the same shareholder for at least two years shall not benefit from a double voting right
3. The vote is held and the votes expressed according to the decision of the officers of the meeting, by a raising of hands, e-mail or using any telecommunications means permitting the identification of the shareholders within the conditions imposed by the regulations in force.

ARTICLE 31 - ORDINARY SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

1. The Ordinary Shareholders Meeting is the meeting called to vote all decisions which do not amend the By-Laws.

It is convened at least yearly, within the legal and regulatory deadlines in force, to resolve on the accounts and, as the case may be, on the consolidated accounts of the previous financial year.

2. The Ordinary Shareholders Meeting voting within the quorum and majority conditions required by the provisions governing it, exercises the powers granted to it by law.

ARTICLE 32 - EXTRAORDINARY SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

1. The Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting alone has the power to amend any and all of the provisions of the By-Laws. Nonetheless, it cannot increase the shareholders' commitments, subject to the operations resulting from an exchange or grouping of shares duly decided and carried out.
2. The Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting, voting within the quorum and majority conditions required by the provisions governing it, exercises the powers granted to it by law.

ARTICLE 33 - SHAREHOLDERS' INFORMATION RIGHT

Shareholders are entitled to be provided with the documents which are necessary to allow them to take a stand with full knowledge of the facts and to bear an enlightened judgment on the Company's management and operations.

The nature of these documents and in the conditions of mailing or availability thereof are determined by the law.

ARTICLE 34 - THE FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year lasts for twelve months. It begins on January 1 and ends on December 31 of each year.

ARTICLE 35 - ANNUAL ACCOUNTS – MANAGEMENT REPORT

Regular accounts are kept of the company's operations, in accordance with law.

At the end of each financial year, the Board of Directors drafts an inventory of the various assets and liabilities existing as at this date.

It also draws-up the balance sheet describing the assets and liabilities and presenting separately the equity capital, the income statement showing the year's income and expenses, as well as the appendix supplementing and commenting the information provided on the balance sheet and the income statement.

Even in the event that there are no profits or insufficient profits, the necessary amortizations and provisions are made. The amount of the commitments secured, endorsed or guaranteed by the Company is mentioned in the appendix.

The Board of Directors establishes the management report on the Company's situation within the conditions stipulated by law.

ARTICLE 36 - ESTABLISHMENT, ALLOCATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS/LOSSES

The income statement, which shows the year's income and expenses, shows the year's profits after subtracting amortizations and provisions.

From the year's profit, minus previous losses, as the case may be, at least five percent (5%) are deducted to create the legal reserve. This deduction ceases to be mandatory when the reserve amounts to one tenth of the share capital; it is resumed when the legal reserve falls, for any reason whatsoever, below this percentage.

The distributable profits are made up of the year's profit minus previous losses and the amounts placed on reserve, pursuant to law and the By-Laws, plus the profits carried forward.

From this profit, the shareholders meeting may deduct all amounts deemed useful by the Board of Directors to endow all provident funds or optional, ordinary or extraordinary reserves, or to carry forward or distribute. The balance, if any exists, is distributed among all the shareholders proportionately.

Furthermore, the shareholders meeting may decide to distribute amounts deducted from the available reserves, indicating expressly the reserve items from which the deductions are made. Nonetheless, dividends are deducted by priority from the year's distributable profit.

Except in the case of a reduction in the share capital, no amounts can be distributed to the shareholders when the equity capital is or would fall, following such distribution, below the amount of the capital plus the reserves of which the law or the By-Laws prohibit the distribution.

The revaluation differential is not distributable. It may be incorporated partially or entirely into the capital. Losses, if any, are carried forward, after approval of the accounts by the shareholders' meeting, to be charged to the profits of subsequent years until they are liquidated.

ARTICLE 37 - PROCEDURES FOR PAYING DIVIDENDS

1. The shareholders' meeting is entitled to grant to each shareholder, for all or a portion of the dividend or interim dividends distributed, an option between cash payment and payment in Company shares within the conditions determined by law.
2. The procedures for paying dividends in cash are determined by the shareholders' meeting or, failing that, by the Board of Directors.

Payment of the dividends in cash must take place within a maximum period of nine (9) months following the end of the financial year, unless this period is extended by authorization of the court.

No refunding of the dividend can be demanded from the shareholders except when it has been distributed in breach of legal provisions and when the Company provides evidence that the beneficiaries were aware of the irregular nature of this distribution at the time it occurred or could not have ignored it given the circumstances. As the case may be, action for recovery is time-barred, thirty (30) years after the payment of these dividends.

Dividends which are not claimed within five (5) years of their payment are no longer valid.

ARTICLE 38 - DISSOLUTION – LIQUIDATION

At the time of the company's expiry or in the event of early dissolution, the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting settles the liquidation method and appoints one or several liquidators whose powers it determines and who perform their duties in accordance with the law.

ARTICLE 39 - DISPUTES

All disputes which might arise during the Company's term or at the time of its liquidation, either between the shareholders, the management or auditing bodies and the Company, or among the shareholders themselves, regarding Company's business, will be settled in accordance with the law and submitted to the competent courts entertaining jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 40 - PUBLICITY – POWERS

The publicity formalities required by the law will be carried out at the diligence of the Chief Executive Officer or Deputy Chief Executive Officer with special powers for this purpose.
